

out&about

Compiled by Tonia N. Cimino

Photos by Allen Ngai and Michelle Kawka

York College Celebrates 40 Years

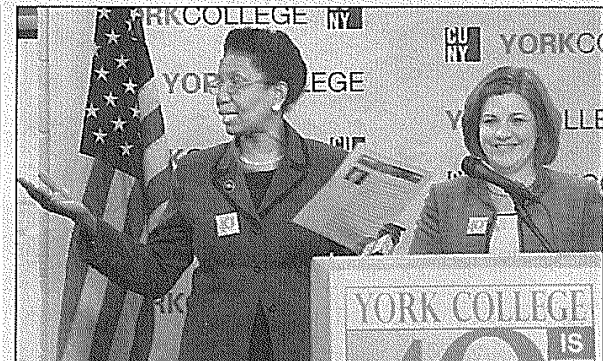

York College celebrated 40 years on the move with an executive leadership breakfast featuring City Council Speaker Christine Quinn.

George Aridas, Chair, York College Foundation; former Borough President Claire Shulman; John Kotowski, Director of City Relations, CUNY; Pat Edwards, Citibank, NA.

Borough President Helen Marshall; Marcia Keizs, President, York College; Philippa L. Karteron, Project Administrator for Special Initiatives, NYC Department of Small Business Services; Andrew Jackson, Executive Director, Langston Hughes Community Library and Cultural Center; Betty Pearsall, Director, York College Child Care Center.

Dr. Marcia V. Keizs and City Council Speaker Christine Quinn address the crowd.

York College Celebrates 40 Years

York College celebrated 40 years on the move with an executive leadership breakfast featuring City Council Speaker Christine Quinn.

George Aridas, Chair, York College Foundation; former Borough President Claire Shulman; John Kotowski, Director of City Relations, CUNY; Pat Edwards, Citibank, NA.

Borough President Helen Marshall; Marcia Keizs, President, York College; Philippa L. Karteron, Project Administrator for Special Initiatives, NYC Department of Small Business Services; Andrew Jackson, Executive Director, Langston Hughes Community Library and Cultural Center; Betty Pearsall, Director, York College Child Care Center.

Dr. Marcia V. Keizs and City Council Speaker Christine Quinn address the crowd.

Meeks' Annual Award Recognition Dinner

U.S. Senator Hillary Rodham Clinton was the featured speaker at Congressman Gregory Meeks' annual Award Recognition Dinner, held at Antun's. The award recipients included Henry McCoy, District Leader; Roger Toussaint, President, TWU Local 100; Dr. Gloria Black, Community Board 12; Antonio Martin, Exec. Dir./CEO, Queens Hospital Center; Kevin Jemmott, President, Cambria Heights